We all want to be superheroes in the eyes of our children.

As a parent of a child with Learning Differences, you find yourself being asked to play the role of an interpreter, therapist, case manager, AND an IEP (Individualized Education Program) expert. Learn how to be an IEP superhero for your child.

An IEP superhero is:

- Courageous in the face of adversity
- Calm when others would be angry
- Knowledgeable about the complexities of the IEP and monitoring your child's progress
- Brave when negotiating for your child's needs
- Hopeful in tough situations

Roxanne Bradley, Certified Special Education Advocate, has designed this 6-week workshop to help you become an IEP superhero. Attend this series to develop your IEP superhero knowledge and skills.

Cost of workshop is less than 2 hours of an attorney's time!
